From the Editorial Quill

2020 has taken us all unguarded, slowed the pace of the world and tilted the path away from what we had planned to take. But despite the hurdles and impediments, we the editorial team is blithe to bring you the Fifth Edition of VIBRANT – which we hope with firm conviction that it be a breath of fresh air that requires no mask or risk to inhale in and take you down its refreshing and maverick content .

It isn't merely pages compiled into a magazine; but it's a rendezvous of thoughts, musings and reminiscences that will have you ponder, take you to an innovative flight from engaged thoughts, have your funny bones tickled and have you realize that it was all good, that UCTE was a tryst of Fun & Friends, of Knowledge and Experience, of Learning & Teaching. Strolling down the past events we had lived and revisiting it now in words and pictures will give us an instant vacation, oblivious to the year 2020.

Promising all that is jovial and good, we wish you all a euphoric odyssey through the Fifth Edition of VIBRANT.
